NUMB. 2584

WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 21. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Constantinople, August 12.

THE Porte, besides the Military Preparations for Persia, which still go on, has got a young Prince to oppose against the Shah. He is given out to be either the late Shah's Son, or Nephew; but is believed to be neither. He has lately had great Honours paid him here, and is already conducted into Asia. He is to proceed towards Persia, and to be supported by a good Body of Troops. 'Tis hoped, that by this Means some Detection or Division may be occasioned among the Shah's People. 'Tis assured, but kept very secret by the Porte, that the Shah's Troops have already made an Incursion upon the Frontiers of the Empire, and that they have begun Hostilities by the seizing Kerkute. The Plague makes great Havock this Year amongst the Franks, whilst the Turks are in a manner free from it.

Rome, September 9. This Day the Pope had a double Consistory, in which he made the greatest Promotion that ever yet was heard of. In the first Consistory he promoted only one, whose Name remains so absolute a Secret, that all the Letters from Rome declare it impenetrable. His Holiness then did some consistorial Acts, in order to distinguish that Promotion from those which were to follow it; after which he bestow'd Twenty-four of the vacant Hats on the following Persons; viz.

1. M. Almenara Porto-Carero, a Spaniard, Patriarch of Antioch.

2. M. Lanti, a Roman, President of the Dutchy of Urbino.

3. M. Monti, a Bolonese, Secretary to the Congregation de propaganda Fide.

4. M. Landi, of Piacentia, Archbishop of Beneventum.

5. M. Girolami, a Florentine, Secretary to the Congregation of Bishops and Regulars.

6. M. Pozzo-Bonelli, a Milanese, lately promoted to the Archbishoprick of Milan.

7. M. Calcagnini, a Ferrarese, Dean of the Tribunal of the Rota.

8. M. Cavalchini, a Milanese, Secretary to the Congregation of the Council.

9. M. Ruffo, a Neapolitan, Auditor of the Apostolick Chamber.

10. The Abbe Prince Doria, a Genoese, Nuncio Extraordinary from the Pope to the Emperor, and Princes of Germany.

11. M. Crescenzi, a Roman, Archbishop of Nazianca, Nuncio at the Court of his most Christian Majesty.

12. M. Tanara, a Bolonese, Auditor of the Rota.

13. M. Bolognetti, a Roman, Treasurer of the Apostolick Chamber.

14. M. Paulucci-Merlini, of Forli, Nuncio to the Court of Vienna.

15. M. Barn, of Lodi, Nuncio to the Court of Spain.

16. M. Oddi, of Perousa, Nuncio to the Court of Portugal.

17. M. Colonna, a Roman, Major Domo to the Pope.

18. M. Colonna-Schiarra, a Roman, Master of the Chamber to his Holiness.

19. M. Bardi, a Florentine, Secretary of the Chamber de la Consulta.

20. M. Ricci, a Roman, Governor of the City of Rome.

21. Father Luccini, a Milanese, a Dominican Monk, Commissary of the Tribunal of the Holy Office.

22. Father Tamburini, a Modenese, Abbot of St. Paul of Mount Cassin, of the Order of St. Benedict.

23. Father Biscci, a Milanese, of the Order of the Cistertians, Abbot of the Holy Cross of Jerusalem.

24. The Abbe Duke de Gravina-Orsini, Nephew to the late Pope Benedict XIII. who embraced the Ecclesiastical State after the Death of his Spouse, the Princess Ruspoli.

His Holiness declared likewise three other Cardinals, but reserv'd their Names in Petto; and their Names are not so much as guess'd at.

The following Persons are named as Nuncios upon his Promotions; M. Stoppani, to the Emperor, Serbelloni, to the Court of Vienna; Bozini, to that of France; Crempi, to that of Portugal; Henriques, to that of Spain; Bracciolo, to Venice; Spinola, to the Swissers; Gualtieri, to Naples; and Passionei, to Malta. A Congregation of ten Cardinals sat this Morning, to consider of the Demand made by the English Admiral Matthews, that the Spanish Artillery and Ammunition should be deliver'd up to him.

Genoa, September 7. An English Vessel appear'd, some few Days ago, before the Harbour of Ventimiglia, and demanded Leave to go ashore, in order to fill Water, which they were refused. Upon this, the Officer who commanded on board, sent to desire Leave to examine the Mountains in that Neighbourhood, which was also refused. Upon this, they made their Report to Admiral Matthews, who sent them back with a Frigate, and two Bomb Vessels; the commanding Officer threatning to bombard the Town. They landed accordingly, went wherever they pleas'd, without any regard to the Prohibitions of the Magistrates of Health; and having finished their Plans, went on board again, and withdrew. The Republick is so much displeas'd with this Kind of Usage, that she has sent Orders to her Minister at London to complain of it, and that too in very strong Terms. We frequently receive Advices from Corsica, but the Accounts that come from thence are kept so very secret, that we hear nothing at all of what is doing there.

Bologna, September 10. Our Senate has already appointed a Deputation to go and compliment Prince Lobkowitz, on his Arrival from Germany. The Austrian Hussars do a great deal of Mischief, and have actually push'd their Excursions as far as Forli. The Spaniards, notwithstanding they have received all the Artillery and Ammunition that was lately landed at Civita Vecchia, remain quiet in their Camp; and the Duke of Modena, who commands them in chief, is lately gone to pay his Devotions to our Lady of Loretta.

Turin, September 7. As it is now certain, that the Spaniards, in Conjunction with the French, are determined to attempt a Passage through our Territories into Italy, his Majesty has caused all his Forces to march, in order to block up the Passages, and render their Design absolutely abortive. There are now no Troops in this City but the King's Life Guards, who have Orders to hold themselves in readiness to march at a Minute's Warning. The King intends, very speedily, to put himself at the Head of his Troops, which consist of 25,000 Men. The Baron de Lornay, at the Head of a small Party of Men, made an Irruption lately into Savoy, where he possess'd himself of one of the Enemy's Magazines, and made 50 Men in it Prisoners.

Dantzick, September 19. According to certain Advices from Petersbourg, we learn, that the Plenipotentiaries of Sweden having demanded the Assistance of the Russian Ships and Gallies, in case a certain Power should make any Attempt to the Prejudice of Sweden, these Propositions were consider'd in a Council of between 20 and 30 Persons, wherein it was resolv'd, That half the Gallies should be immediately sent to the Assistance of the Swedes, and should actually Winter in Finland. At the same time, the Squadron under the Command of Admiral Count Gallowin, consisting of 15 Sail, had likewise Orders to join the Swedish Squadron, and continue cruizing as long as the Season permits.

Franckfort, September 22. The Army of the Allies remains in the same Situation it did near Worms, and, according to our last Advices from that of Prince Charles, he continues still in Possession of the Island of Rhinmarck. Col. Trenck is appointed Governor of Brisack, and has caused a new Manifesto to be scattered throughout Alsace, in order to spirit up the People to Rebellion. We are continually sending Recruits to the Imperial Army, and from the Dispositions that have been lately made, it looks as if something of Importance would be shortly undertaken. It is certain, that his Prussian Majesty took a View of these Troops in their Camp, and appeared to be very well satisfied with them. We are inform'd, that he afterwards went to visit the Camp of the Allies incognito, and that he will return to Berlin the beginning of next Month.

Worms, September 18. On the 14th Instant a Treaty of Marriage between her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa and the Prince Royal of Denmark, was signed by the Right Hon. the Lord Carteret and his Excellency the Baron de Sohlenthal, Ambassador Extraordinary from the King of Denmark. The whole Dutch Auxiliaries, with the Artillery, being come up, it is thought his Majesty will move from hence in a few Days with the whole combined Army. We have no Accounts from Prince Charles's Army.

Spire, September 20. A Detachment of 600 Hussars, who were sent some Days ago to view the French Lines along the Queich, having advanced on the Side of Ottersheim, attacked very briskly a Post guarded by Dragoons. These, in some short time, were obliged to abandon it; but being supported in time by a Squadron of Horse, they beat the Hussars in their Turn, killed 30, put the rest to Flight, and made a great many Prisoners.

Hague, September 27. The Right Honourable the Earl of Stair arrived here last Wednesday Evening.

IRELAND

Dublin, September 13. On Sunday last died, at his Lodgings in College Green, Claudius Gilbert, D. D. formerly Vice-Provost of Trinity College, Dublin, and also Professor of Divinity in that University; in which Office he continued after he resigned his Fellowship. A Gentleman, who for a great Number of Years distinguished himself by a constant and unweary Diligence in the Discharge of the important Office of a publick Tutor, not only instructing his Pupils by Precept, but setting them an Example in his own Life and Conduct truly worthy of Imitation. He has left his fine and valuable Collection of Books to the College Library, and also a Fund for erecting and furnishing a new Library for the Use of Under-Graduates.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices have been pleased to appoint Abraham Creichton, Esq; to be one of the Trustees of the Linen Manufacture, in the room of Henry Hamilton, Esq; deceased.

And to appoint Thomas Burler, Esq; to be one of the said Trustees, in the room of Sir John St. Leger, Knight, deceas'd,

And also to appoint Philip Doyne, Esq; to be one of the said Trustees, in the room of the Lord Fitzwilliam, deceased.

LONDON.

The King of Denmark has discovered his Intention to support the Pretensions of the Prince Royal to the Crown of Sweden, and rendering the Election of the Duke of Holstein void. The States of Sweden have declared, however, that the Nomination of the Prince of Denmark was to be regarded purely as a Nomination, and not as an Election, because the several Orders never consented to it.

Yesterday the Edgbaston, Captain Stephen Cobham, bound for Mocha, fell down the River for Gravesend, in order to take on board the Remainder of the Company's Cargo, and to proceed on her Voyage with the utmost Expedition.

Last Week the Races began at Lincoln, when Mr. Hatton's Grey Horse walk'd the Course for the King's Plate, no Horse being enter'd against him.

On Wednesday Five Horses started for the City Plate of 50 l. which was won by Mr. Crofts's Brown Horse.

On Thursday Three started for the Lady's Purse of 60 l. and was won by the Duke of Ancaster's Chesnut Horse.

Yesterday Mr. Smith, a Tidesman, was unfortunately drowned by slipping into the River, as he was going to step from a Lighter into a Boat.

Yesterday his Grace the Duke of Grafton set out for his Seat in Suffolk.

The same Day the Right Hon. the Earl of Pembroke arriv'd in Town from his Seat at Wilton in Wiltshire.

As did likewise Capel Hanbury, Esq; Member of Parliament for Leominster.

Last Monday, between One and Two in the Morning, Mr. Tompkins, a Carpenter in Harp Alley, near the Fleet Market, was assaulted by two Fellows near his own House, who robb'd him of three Guineas and a half. One of which, whose Name is Robert Stevens, was apprehended, and the same Day committed to Newgate.

Yesterday Robert Kelly was committed to the Poultry Compter, on Suspicion of stealing a Horse, the Property of some Person unknown.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handsomness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is very agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it, under various other Names, beware therefore of such Impositions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.

The Incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH,

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtues, the Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; some imitating it by the Name of Powder, others under several other Names; therefore pray take Notice, that the only true effectual and original Powder, is sold no where else, but as mention'd below: It is sent for in large Quantities form the Plantations beyond the Seas, where good Allowance is given, and is as effectual in the East and West Indies as at London.

IT has given surprizing Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, near 9 Years last past, that it hath been published, and vast Quantities of it still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, the Blue-coat-Boy, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill; and at Mrs. Markham's Great Toy-shop, the Seven Stars now (since she is removed) directly over-against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and no where else in England at 1 s. each Box.

N.B. Pray mind you send to the right Place; for the Shop Mrs. Markham is removed from, has also got the Seven Stars for its Sign.

At once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, tho' ever so black or yellow before, and effectually preserves them from rotting or decaying, continuing them sound to exceeding old Age. It wonderfully cures the Scurvy in the Gums, prevents Rheum or Defluction, kills the Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It admirably fastens loose Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and grateful Scent, and in Virtue far exceeds any Thing ever yet found out for those Purposes.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who send to Mrs. Markham's for the Powder for Teeth, are desired to give strict Orders not to mistake the Shop, (MARKHAM at length is under the Seven Stars) because most of the Toymen in her Neighbourhood, seeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have trumpt up Counterfeits and sell their Stuff in Imitation of this known and approved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

The LIP-SALVE.

Which is so much esteemed, and of so many Years large Experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any of the many Counterfeits, since its first Publication, is sold at the same Places at 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heals them, tho' never so rough or chopt; prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming rubicund Colour; the Fragrancy of its Odour also renders the Breath fine and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Safety.

LONDON: Printed for M. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-Noster-Row,
